WELCOME TO 2026 bull sale.

Welcome to the Hall's Cattle Co. First Annual Black Angus & Simmental Bull Sale at our farm!

We're proud to invite you to our very first bull sale at our location and excited to showcase a powerful lineup of both Black Angus and Simmental genetics. This offering features exciting new sires that bring fresh performance and pedigree to our program, along with our tried-and-true, consistent herd bulls that have proven themselves year after year.

This year's sale will be held at our farm in Craven, and we're looking forward to welcoming everyone out to see the cattle in their working environment. We take pride in raising cattle that offer:

- Strong, reliable performance
- Good quality and structural soundness
- Excellent temperament
- Genetics built for longevity and profitability

In addition to our bull offering, we will also be selling three groups of three unregistered heifers. These groups are sired by Black Angus and Simmental bulls, providing a solid opportunity to add functional, productive females to your herd.

We are excited to show you the work we've put into our program and visit with both new and longtime supporters. Thank you for your interest in Hall's Cattle Co.—we look forward to seeing you sale day!

Follow us for updates!

On behalf of Bullseye Feeds we are proud to be working with the team at Halls Cattle Co. again this year on the development of the 2026 yearling sale bulls as well as the cowherd nutrition. These yearling bulls are raised on high forage moderate-energy diets with increased protein levels for optimal frame growth, muscle, and pubertal development throughout the critical growth stages of their lives. The bulls enter the feeding pens in September for preparation of the spring sale. These bulls are fed with medium-energy, high-protein diets to maintain ideal body condition, hair growth, hoof health, and structural integrity/longevity. The bulls are managed on a fully chelated mineral package balanced with the on farm available forages for optimum immunity and ideal semen quality. New and included in the Bullseye premix is a product called CHROMIUM. Chromium activates the insulin receptors of a cell, allowing more glucose to enter the cell equating in more energy available to be absorbed into the bloodstream. This ingredient helps improve feed efficiency, increases protein accretion and improves immunity ensuring that the developed bulls on test are at peak health and performance levels when they are sent to your operation to get cows bred.

The Hall Family invests their time and money into their nutrition program with one GOAL in mind. Satisfied, long-term customers! We encourage anyone and everyone to make the trip down to Craven, Saskatchewan to appraise this exceptional set of yearling bulls.

Good luck on sale day!
